

New features on our web site

We have added several new features on our web site that we think you'd like to know about. One is a new page celebrating our music program. You'll find a list of musicians who are scheduled to perform at our Sunday services through the end of our church year (mid-June 2010) and other information on the page at <http://www.uusarasota.com/music.php>

We now have a page where several church leaders publish their thoughts of the month. If you go to <http://www.uusarasota.com/columnists.php> you'll find columns by Rev. Margret, church president Rick Sandler, Social Justice chair Julie Leach, and of course the wise Dr. Dick, the only man with a PhD in weeding a garden.

Finally, a page of Coming Events tells you about activities you might enjoy attending through the month of February in list form. Just point your browser at <http://www.uusarasota.com/whatsgoingon.php> (Posted by admin on 2/17/2010 3:56 pm)

We are a Green Sanctuary!

Promoting ways to make choices that are good for us and our planet! Do you know the real cost of a hamburger? Do you know the benefit of purchasing Fair Trade coffee, chocolate and nuts? Did you know that our Fair Trade Coffee purchases by UU churches like ours not only help small farmers around the world, but have also generated $18,000 of donations to the Unitarian Universalist Service Committee! Stop by the Social Justice Table today in the courtyard and see our special display about how to help farmers and our planet, pick up a story about our Columbian coffee growers, and find out what a hamburger really costs (we have lots of chocolate and other new items!) ## The Social Justice Committee is looking for volunteers!

Ways you can help:

- help with mailings for our local affiliate of Planned Parenthood in general, we work one Friday per month.
  - Habitat for Humanity: help us serve snacks on Saturday, February 27 at 9:00 am
  - help serve a dinner or lunch at Salvation Army
- We have other opportunities available, too – come see us and sign up at the Social Justice table in the courtyard during coffee hour. (Posted by admin on 2/17/2010 3:52 pm)
